

Hunan University of Chinese Medicine, referred to as HNUCM, is located in Changsha City, Hunan Province. The school is under the supervision of the Hunan Provincial Department of Education. It is a key undergraduate institution in Hunan Province and one of the first batch of national universities in the country. It is a Chinese medicine college with key disciplines at the national level and one of the first Chinese medicine colleges in the country to recruit doctoral students, international students and students from Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan.

language student

Applicants qualifications

1. Non-Chinese citizens, high school diploma, over 18 years old, health certificate
2. Passport valid within six months, high school diploma and transcript, criminal record certificate, physical examination report, video interview
3. high school diploma and transcript, 4. Chinese proficiency level above HSK 4, criminal record certificate, medical examination report, financial guarantee.

Enrollment majors

5-year programs: Traditional Chinese Medicine, Traditional Chinese Medicine and Health Preservation, Integrative Medicine (Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine), Clinical Medicine, Stomatology, Acupuncture and Tuina, Medical Imaging.

4-year programs: English, Nursing, Rehabilitation Therapy, Sports Rehabilitation, Traditional Chinese Pharmacy.

Passport valid within the last six months, high school diploma and transcript, Chinese proficiency level above HSK 4, criminal record certificate, medical examination report, financial guarantee.

Scholarship benefits

Hunan University of Traditional Chinese Medicine First-Class Academic Scholarship for International Students